

Chilean Ministry of Health (Chilean MoH)

Chile

DIPRECE contributes to improving the quality and level of health of the population by leading the formulation, monitoring and evaluation of public policies, plans and programs in disease prevention and control, exercising a leading and regulatory role that considers the approaches of rights, equity, gender, participation and that addresses the social determinants and health needs of the population based on the best available evidence. One of their contributions consists of developing Clinical Guidelines.

<https://www.gob.cl/en/ministries/ministry-of-health/>

Link to recommendations: https://diprece.minsal.cl/wrdprss_minsal/wp-content/uploads/2016/03/GUIA-CLINICA-DEPRESION-15-Y-MAS.pdf

Table

Recommended treatments by Chilean MoH according to their empirical support

Strong	Behavioural activation, Cognitive-behavioural techniques ³ , Cognitive-behavioural therapy ⁸⁺ , Counselling, Group interventions, Guided self-help ⁶ , Interpersonal psychotherapy ^{4, 8+} , Mindfulness-based cognitive therapy, Psychodynamic therapy, Psychoeducation ³ , Supportive psychotherapy, Systemic family therapy,
Moderated	Couples therapy, Problem-solving therapy
Weak/Controversial	-
Insufficient	-
No evidence assessment	-
First line	-