

Serbian Ministry of Health (Serbian MoH)

Serbia

The Serbian MoH is the government body responsible for formulating and implementing national health policy, regulating the healthcare system, and ensuring the provision of healthcare services throughout Serbia. It oversees public health, healthcare institutions, pharmaceuticals, and national health programs.

<https://www.zdravlje.gov.rs/>

Link to recommendations:

https://www.zdravlje.gov.rs/view_file.php?file_id=675&cache=sr

Table

Recommended treatments by Serbian MoH according to their empirical support

Strong	Behavioural activation ^{1, 2, 6, 7} , Cognitive-behavioural therapy ^{b, 1, 2, 6, 7, 8+} , Counselling ⁶ , Guided self-help based on cognitive-behavioural therapy principles ⁶ , Interpersonal psychotherapy ^{b, 1, 2, 6, 7, 8+} , Problem-solving therapy ^{1, 2, 6, 7}
Moderate	Behavioural activation ⁵ , Cognitive-behavioural therapy ⁵ , Couples therapy ^{1, 2, 6, 7} , Family therapy ^{1, 2, 6, 7} , Group therapy ^{1, 2, 6, 7} , Interpersonal psychotherapy ⁵ , Psychodynamic therapy ^{1, 2, 6, 7}
Weak/Controversial Insufficient
No evidence assessment
First line	Behavioural activation, Cognitive-behavioural therapy, Interpersonal psychotherapy